DATABASE ADMINISTRATOR

EnterpriseWorx is a Johannesburg-based IT company with areas of expertise including business intelligence, data management and application development, as well as an array of solutions tailored to address clients' specific needs.

Established in 2003, we've become specialists in using the power of technology and information to give organisations a competitive edge. To this end, we prioritise global best practices, agile methods, superior technology and the highest-calibre people and process optimisation, and we support all services with first-class IT project management and business analysis.

Job Description:

We are looking for a motivated individual to join our database administration and product team. The induvial should preferable be new to the industry, looking to gain experience and advancing in his/her database administration career. Candidates who are still busy with their part-time studies will also be considered. The candidate must be well presented and have good communication skills. Own transport beneficial.

Pro-active maintenance and monitoring of employer and client database environments. Ad-hoc or scheduled changes/patches to employer or client database environments using accepted change control standards. Responding to basic to intermediate level DBA support tickets in a timeous fashion.

Basic database development on in-house centralised database administration tool (Conductor4SQL and humm.db), as well as end-to-end testing of new features and improvements in lab environment. Limited client deployment and support of in-house products, as well as ad-hoc consulting and training.

Educational Requirement

1. Bachelor's degree in computer science, or related field
2. Microsoft Certification in applicable technologies

Required technologies experience

1. Microsoft SQL Server 2012 Express, and upward
2. Microsoft SQL Server Management Studio
3. Microsoft .net Framework 4.7+ and .net Framework Core 2.0+ beneficial
4. Microsoft Visual Studio
5. Microsoft Visual Studio Code
6. Git
7. Basic networking experience beneficial
8. Basic Microsoft Windows and Windows Server experience beneficial
9. Office Suite (Word, Excel, etc.)

Working environment

1. Office based, with limited travel to clients (own transport)
2. Working hours 8:00 to 17:00 weekdays, rotating after-hours and weekend support required